YouTube: YouTube is one of the largest video-sharing platforms in the world. Users can upload, share, and discover videos on a wide range of topics. It supports various formats, including vlogs, tutorials, music videos, and more. 2. TikTok: TikTok is a short-form video platform where users can create and share 15 to 60-second videos. It gained significant popularity for its viral dance challenges, lip-syncing, and creative content. TikTok's algorithm suggests personalized videos based on user preferences. 3. Instagram: Although Instagram is primarily a photo-sharing platform, it has a strong emphasis on video content as well. Users can share videos in the feed, on their Stories, or through IGTV (Instagram TV). Instagram Reels, a feature similar to TikTok, allows users to create short videos with music and effects. 4. Snapchat: Snapchat is known for its disappearing photo and video messaging, but it has evolved to include features like Snapchat Stories and Discover. Users

can capture and share videos with friends, and the content disappears after a set period. 5. Vimeo: Vimeo is a platform focused on high-quality video content. It caters more to professionals and creatives, providing tools for video hosting, sharing, and collaboration. Vimeo often showcases artistic, educational, and professional videos. 6. Dailymotion: Dailymotion is a video-sharing platform where users can upload and discover videos across various topics. It offers a mix of professional and user-generated content, including movies, TV shows, music videos, and more. 7. Twitch: Twitch is a live streaming platform primarily dedicated to gaming but has expanded to include other content categories like music, creative arts, and talk shows. Users can stream their gameplay or watch others' live broadcasts, and interact through chat. Demonstrate the use of video sharing platforms such as YouTube, Facebook Live, Periscope, Vimeo etc. Assessment <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
